

ALL SOULS FEBRUARY 2017 NEWSLETTER

Sunday Service at 10:30 am

Friends,

Time sure does fly. It is already February! We are so blessed by so many people and so many different things happening! We are working together to improve our world, build relationships, and advocate for Justice.

Our Board of Management just approved 2017 to be our year of Racial Justice. We will do our part to engage our hearts and minds and our communities to challenge what we think and feel regarding the role of our principles and the issues of race. Sociologist Arlie Hochschild asks us in her book, Strangers in Their Own Land, to look at our own stories, Deep Stories, as she calls them.

Deep Stories are the stories about identity, and the stories of hope and disappointment within the American Dream and the American Experience. As we engage our faith, the ways our principles intersect with our lives, it behooves us to look at our stories of meaning and identities. This can be hard work, but it is needed work.

Let's share these stories together, shouldering these difficult tasks together, looking at who we are, who we were, and who we are becoming, as both individuals and as a church. Regardless of our source- traditions, it is individuals that fellowship to become a church and in sharing these Deep Stories we strengthen each other and ourselves.

Peace,

Pastor Will

MESSAGES FROM THE BOARD

...from Art O'Leary - Social Justice/Social Action Trustee

Greetings to All Souls Members, Friends and Interested Visitors,

This month is a busy and exciting one, with lots to tell you about. The board has designated Racial Justice as an area of special emphasis for 2017, and there's lots happening! We have already had MLK Day and participated in an interfaith celebration of the holiday and the legacy of the civil rights icon. It was a beautiful example of many perspectives on Dr. King, and many of us were there to appreciate and participate in the event. I had never seen Pastor Will in a clerical collar! He did a great job of presenting UUs as a force for civil rights, and we were proud to be there. The next day, the first event of Black History Month occurred at "the branch", with a rally presented by Cheryl Carter entitled "We Choose Community". Several of us enjoyed her moving invitation to follow through on Dr. King's famous challenge to choose chaos or community. A talk on inclusive language occurred on January 24 at 12:30 pm at the branch in Eisenhower Hall in Room #113. The topic was LGBTQ and gender. The next talk is February 7 in the same location on race and ethnicity, and the third in the series is on privilege and poverty on February 21 and the last is March 8 on religion and morality.

Other events for Black History Month include a town meeting on Mental Health and the African American community, which will be held at the Mid-Ohio Education Service Center, 890 W. Fourth St. in Mansfield from 5:00 pm – 7:00 pm on February 9. On February 23, two events will happen at the branch. The Power of the Negro Spiritual: Make a Joyful Noise at 12:30 pm in the Reidl Hall auditorium and the 16th Annual Soul Food Dinner from 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm in the Eisenhower Center. I hope you will mark your calendars and attend as many of these events as possible. I'll be counting!

Peace,

Art

I was pleased that when I wanted to discuss an issue with our pastor, I got rapid email responses and found out he was obviously thinking about the subject. Will and I don't agree on every single issue, but I want to say that Will Humphrey is really tuned into what he's doing, and we should each appreciate his dedication.

Our potluck for February will be on Sunday, February 26. Please sign up for two kitchen cleaners and for social hall and bathroom cleaning. One area where we need more involvement is social hall and bathroom cleaning. This can be done on Sunday or any other time. Thank you to Mike Garber for kitchen floor care last month.

New lists for March and April will be coming around in church soon. Thank you for all who have helped.

Unitarian Universalist History James Reeb, Social Worker and UU Minister: 1927-1965

Reeb died of head trauma two days after being beaten by white supremacists. He went to Montgomery, Alabama following a nationwide call by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. following “Bloody Sunday”. He was accompanied by fellow UU Ministers Clark Olsen and Orloff Miller.

Reeb was born to poor parents who often moved, finally settling in Wyoming. He was a bright student and excellent debater. He served in World War II, then went to St. Olaf College in Minnesota and then to Princeton Theological Seminary. He went to serve All Souls UU Church in Washington, DC, then to Boston to work the Quaker run American Friends Service Committee. He walked with and lived with poor black communities. His death led to protests to support the Civil Rights Movement.

...from Chuck Rhodes - Building & Maintenance Trustee

Last month, the prioritized maintenance projects were submitted to the Board for their review and approval was received to proceed. This list was presented to the Sanctuary Renovation Committee to approve the distribution funds to each project in the Sanctuary Renovation Project. As indicated in last month’s report, we raised enough money to complete the renovation of the sanctuary. The Board approved the action and permitted the project to proceed.

Work on the sanctuary will begin January 30, 2017, with:

- a) repair of the ceiling and walls and painting the same
- b) removal of the ceiling fans
- c) begin to refinish woodwork where needed
- d) rewire/replace the three hanging lights and convert to LED

During this week the sanctuary will be closed.

Following the repair and painting of the ceiling and walls, the pews will reupholstered.

In addition, we will be able to replace two more basement windows, thanks to the generous donation by a member of our congregation.

We are going to replace the dehumidifier/HVAC lines with tubing and a small sump pump.

One of our Green Projects is to convert all lights to LED beginning with:

- a) replacing current incandescent bulbs with LED
- b) retrofit existing fixtures to accept LED lamps
- c) replace selected fixtures with LED fixtures and lamps

On Sunday, February 5 at 12:30 pm, Mark Walling, a representative from Third Sun Solar, will present the proposed solar energy plan for All Souls UU Church, which is our other Green project. Mark your calendars and bring your questions.

We still have several projects left to complete, which will require additional funds. Grants, Capital Campaign and sponsorship from individuals/families are options we are exploring. The next several months are going to be very busy, and your patience will be appreciated.

YOUTH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! Our Rainforest Celebration was a smashing success! We had 14 kids participate in the service and party. The kids had a rainforest animal parade, read a poem, shared rainforest facts, sang and then taught a song to the congregation AND afterwards threw a rainforest party complete with decorations and snacks from the rainforest! We also raised $30 to donate to a rainforest conservation organization. We haven't had the kids this involved in a service for a long, long time, and many folks agree we need to make this something we do a couple times a year!

I want to thank our teachers, Leah Humphrey and Jackie Moore. This curriculum was intense on crafts, as you can see from the decorations from the party, and took a bit more planning than some of our other classes. I also want to thank Kayt Gerhart & Karen Gotter for stepping in and helping out during our sessions!

We are going to take a mid-winter break for a few weeks. There will be announcements at church and through email when the Youth RE starts back up.

As always, if you are interested in helping out with the Youth RE, please see Liz Hansen. Even a one day commitment is much appreciated, and we have a lot of flexibility in how you can help! And you don't have to do it alone!

ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Sundays at 9:00 am, Joan Richmond is facilitating our Adult RE using the book "From Age-ing to Sage-ing" by Zalman Schachter-Shalomi and Ronald Miller. The authors introduce the concept of "eldering", or mentoring, each other. They contend that we are at the cutting edge of the next stage in our evolution, and that elders will bring us into this more compassionate, intuitive, and caring era. This class will run every Sunday through March, except the third Sunday of each month due to the board meeting.

If you are interested in facilitating an Adult RE program, please see Liz Hansen. I'm open to any and all ideas!

COURAGE

“Life shrinks or expands in proportion to one’s courage.” – Anais Nin

“When we are overwhelmed with the world
And cannot see our way clear,
When life seems a struggle between tedium and apathy
Or frenzy and exhaustion;
When today seems a punishment and tomorrow a torment,
May we find the courage of patience.
May we recognize courage in ourselves and our companions;
That is not dramatic, that elicits no fanfare;
That commands little notice by the world,
That is forgotten and taken for granted.
May we learn how to cope
Like those who live one day of pain at a time,
Who see the long path of suffering and do not despair,
Who inspire us by their patient courage,
When we are impatient and afraid.
May we know such courage
And quietly celebrate its presence among us. Amen”

Speaker: Aloys Kamwithi

Title: “Existentialism as Affirmation and Critique of Religion: Application to Free and Responsible Search for Truth and Meaning”

Topic: Aloys is inspired by a brave and learned Unitarian Universalist, Francis David, who in the 16th Century made the statement: "We need not think alike to love alike." Aloys’ presentation will borrow heavily from the thoughts of the Danish theologian, Soren Kierkegaard, whose thoughts and writings, though originally meant to further the cause of theism, ended up influencing the thoughts and writings of some of the greatest critics of religion in the 20th Century. The presentation will focus on arguing the case for freedom of thought as espoused by Kierkegaard in matters theological as a basis for authentic existence. Additionally, Aloys will attempt to highlight the pitfalls of collectivized and stereotyped thinking and its negation of the search for God.
