

ALL SOULS NEWSLETTER

Happy New Year!

It's a great time to take a look at ourselves, our journey and our church. We will FINALLY start the Task Force to Vision our church's future!

We will have our First Meeting January 25 from 1:00 to 3:00 after the Potluck. I am guessing one additional meeting in February of about the same length. We need to be well fed to take this on! Plus, it's the Sunday between the NFC/AFC Championship Games and the SuperBowl!

If you are interested and didn't sign up, please attend this gathering.

The Primary Questions to be Answered

- Do we want to grow or stay about the same?
- Do we gather to comfort each other and/or challenge the larger community?
- What kind of leadership do we need to accomplish these goals?

This will be open to the first 8 people; hopefully, with a good mix of age and history with the church.

Hard Choices for Loving Families

This is a book by Hank Dunn and will be the starting point for our class on "End of Life Choices". This class will most likely take place in February or March and will be a mini retreat of about 4 hours on a Saturday. Suggestions for a date or location are welcome.

This book is short and excellent. Everyone should read this book, even if you don't attend the class. If you want one please let me know, they are cheaper if more are ordered. From $4 to $6, depending on how many are ordered at the same time.

I want to place the order by mid-January so folks have time to read it BEFORE the class. If you want a copy please let me know!

"WE TAKE INCLUSIVITY AND DIVERSITY SERIOUSLY"

MESSAGES FROM THE BOARD

...from Glenn Myers: President

All Souls . . . and the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA)

Questions: Why is All Souls a member of the UUA? Don't we have to pay dues? Doesn't this organization tell us how to run our church? Why do we even need it?

Answers: All Souls is a member of the UUA because our own By Laws require us to be a member. Yes, we pay annual dues which fund UUA provided services.

The UUA is not a denomination, rather it is a liberal association that welcomes people with different beliefs and are united by shared values, not by creed or dogma. The UUA is divided into 19 districts. Our District is the Ohio-Meadville District (OMD) and includes All Souls and 45 other UU Churches. The association does not tell us how to run our church.

As for the need, I don't see a downside to our membership. However, there are many benefits. All Souls is isolated by distance and by local philosophy, and we are a small congregation without the wherewithal to conduct extensive religious education programs and social action/social justice activities. The support, comradery, and program offerings of the UUA gives us strength in numbers and in credibility. We have a big brother.

Most members of the UUA are in the U.S. and Canada, but some congregations from other countries have been admitted. Over 1,000 congregations consisting of approximately 165,000 certified members populate the 19 Districts of UUA. There are over 1,600 certified ministers.

If my math is correct, on the average, one would have to sort through 2,000 Americans before coming upon a Unitarian Universalist.

Our group is small, but we have some powerful things going for us: As a church, we respect the dignity of every individual to the ultimate level. Choose your own pathway to spirituality, and you will be supported. Spirituality has no ethnicity, race, gender, prejudice, or bias. There is only peace and love.

There will be no Social Justice meeting on the first Tuesday in January due to a conflict.

Reed Richmond and Liz Hansen are in discussions about an Adult Education class with a Social Justice theme to run on consecutive Sundays at 9:00 am starting as early as March. Please check the February newsletter for more details. These classes will be viewing social justice themes from popular movies and seeing where we can follow through, even in our own congregation.

More information as details develop.

...from Chuck Rhodes: Building & Maintenance Trustee

During the second weekend of December we had a little problem with the city sewer system, which was corrected on December 7. The restrooms were cleaned and sanitized by Teasha Sprague. The carpet in the Fellowship Hall, Nursery, and landings were cleaned and sanitized by Eric Sargent. Thanks for the help.

The replacement window for the south kitchen has arrived and was installed December 29. What a difference!

I want to thank Ann, Bruce and Analyssa Kilgore and Kristy Mandeville for all the work decorating the church for Christmas. It looked beautiful.

The church sign committee will be meeting on January 3 at 12:00 noon in the Fellowship Hall. The intent is to have a sign design selected and a plan for erecting it by May 1, 2015. Committee members are Reed Richmond, Ann Kilgore, Bruce Kilgore, Sandy Macpherson, Mike Garber and Chuck Rhodes. Your thoughts and suggestions may be given to any committee members.

...from Liz Hansen, Religious Education Trustee

Religious Education for young children (5-10) will continue with the Dr. Seuss curriculum during service on January 4. Kayt Gerhart will be presenting "Oh, The Thinks You Can Think".

Youth ages 11-18 will have their Popcorn Theology class on Sunday, January 11, during service. Linda Wilson will lead the youth in discussion after they view a scene from "Dances with Wolves".

Just a reminder about our bookshelves downstairs. The bookshelf at the bottom of the stairs includes books to purchase (if it has a price tag or sign) and books to borrow with a specific UU perspective or written by one of our speakers. The books on the large bookshelf next to the coffee station are also for borrowing and contain a wider variety of topics, all somehow relating to our 7 principles. If you want to donate a book appropriate for our UU library, make sure to attach a label on the inside cover that indicates to return to All Souls when finished. (There are many sheets of these labels on the bookshelf at the bottom of the stairs.) Also, if you realized you've borrowed a book for a really long time, the good news is we don't have late fines, so feel free to bring it back when you have the opportunity!

We also have a bookshelf dedicated to children's books. This can be found in the far corner of the basement. The books found here will be about Unitarian Universalism or related topics. This is a great area to look when you are preparing to present the Children's Moment. Many of the books are anthologies of stories from world religions. Many books would not fit within the 5 minute time limit for the Children's Moment, but a section could easily be presented or pages skipped. I suggest you read the book aloud and assume a 1 minute time allowance for "disruptions". Feel free to borrow these books, but please return them timely so others may enjoy. If you have any questions about our books, feel free to ask Liz Hansen.

...from Brian Moore, Pulpit & Worship Trustee

Greetings from the Pulpit Chair

First and foremost, a thank you to Joan Richmond for having nearly all the speakers booked from July through January, making the first six months of my new position a much easier transition. Now with the New Year, I embrace a new responsibility and challenge with help from my pulpit committee and others to make 2015 a great year at All Souls.

.....Looking at Our First Month

Sunday, January 4

Speaker: Rev. Karen Bruno Title: "Change Your Life with Just One Word"

Topic: Lose the long list of resolutions- all your sweeping promises to change - and do something about one thing this year instead of nothing about everything. Choose just one word that represents what you most hope God will do in you, and focus on it for an entire year. This single act will force clarity and concentrate your efforts. As you focus on your word over an extended period of time, you position yourself for God to form your character at a deep, sustainable level. Growth and change will result. Based on the book, "My One Word", Karen will help you consider what ONE WORD might change your life.

THANK YOU!

Joan and Reed Richmond are announcing a new 2015 venture for Meadow Rise Farm. The farm is re-starting its CSA program. CSA stands for Community Supported Agriculture and, according to the website Local Harvest, “for over 25 years, Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) has become a popular way for consumers to buy local, seasonal food directly from a farmer”.

In our CSA, the basics are that we offer a certain number of shares to people, which consist of 8-12 different vegetables (full share) per week of the 20-week season, running June-October. Interested partners purchase a “share”, paying for it early in the season when the farmers (that is, us) have most of our expenses. We will offer a full share, half share, and mini share (a half share every other week). Prices are, in order, $500, $375 and $250 for the shares, and the agreement specifies ways partners can pay between Feb. 1 and the time delivery season begins.

This arrangement creates several rewards for both the farmer and the consumer. In brief, from Local Harvest’s description:

Advantages for Farmers

- Get to spend time marketing the food early in the year, before their 16 hour days in the field begin.
- Receive payment early in the season, which helps with the farm's cash flow.
- Have an opportunity to get to know the people who eat the food they grow.

Advantages for Consumers

- Eat ultra-fresh food, with all the flavor and vitamin benefits.
- Get exposed to new vegetables and new ways of cooking.
- Usually get to visit the farm at least once a season.
- Find that kids typically favor food from "their" farm — even veggies they've never been known to eat.
- Develop a relationship with the farmer who grows their food and learn more about how food is grown.

Deliveries will be late Wednesday afternoon in the UU church parking lot (25 Church St., Bellville) from 4:30-6:30 p.m.

If you’d like more information about Meadow Rise Farm CSA, please go to Localharvest.org and just type our name or zip code (44813) in the search box. We have more details there on our listing, and then you can contact us for an application.

Thanks for your help in spreading the word!
