FLOWER COMMUNION

The Flower Communion: A Service of Celebration for Religious Liberals by Reginald Zottoli

The Flower communion service was created by Norbert Capek (1870-1942), who founded the Unitarian Church in Czechoslovakia. He introduced this special service to that church on June 4, 1923. For some time he had felt the need for some symbolic ritual that would bind people more closely together. The format had to be one that would not alienate any who had forsaken other religious traditions. The traditional Christian communion service with bread and wine was unacceptable to the members of his congregation because of their strong reaction against the Catholic faith. So he turned to the native beauty of their countryside for elements of a communion that would be genuine to them. This simple service was the result. It was such a success that it was held yearly just before the summer recess of the church.

The flower communion was brought to the United States in 1940 and introduced to the members of our Cambridge, Massachusetts, church by Dr. Capek's wife, Maja V. Capek. The Czech-born Maja had met Norbert Capek in New York City while he was studying for his Ph.D., and it was at her urging that Norbert left the Baptist ministry and turned to Unitarianism. The Capeks returned to Czechoslovakia in 1921 and established the dynamic liberal church in Prague; Maja Capek was ordained in 1926. It was during her tour of the United States that Maja introduced the flower communion, which had been developed in the Prague church, at the Unitarian church in Cambridge. Unfortunately, Maja was unable to return to Prague due to the outbreak of World War II, and it was not until the war was over that Norbert Capek's death in a Nazi concentration camp was revealed. From this beginning the service has spread to many of our Unitarian Universalist congregations and has been adapted along the way.

People were asked to bring a flower of their choice, either from their own gardens or from the field or roadside. When they arrived at church a large vase stood waiting in the vestibule, attended by two young members of the Church School. Each person is asked to place his or her own flower in the vase. This signified that it was by their own free will they joined with the others. The vase that contained all the flowers was a symbol of the united church fellowship.

After the service, as people left the church, they went to the vase and each took a flower from the vase other than the one that they had brought. The significance of the flower communion is that as no two flowers are alike, so no two people are alike, yet each has a contribution to make. Together the different flowers form a beautiful bouquet. Our common bouquet would not be the same without the unique addition of each individual flower, and thus it is with our church community, it would not be the same without each and every one of us. Thus this service is a statement of our community.

By exchanging flowers, we show our willingness to walk together in our Search for truth, disregarding all that might divide us. Each person takes home a flower brought by someone else - thus symbolizing our shared celebration in community. This communion of sharing is essential to a free people of a free religion.

Speaker: Rev. Karen Bruno Topic: What Might Resurrection Mean to a Liberal Thinker?

Is there any hope of connecting with the ancient story in our modern world? How might we find meaning in the metaphor of resurrection? Can we find spiritual renewal during this time when so many Christians are celebrating their faith story?

Bio: Karen Bruno is part time pastoral care minister at Bellville All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church. She attended Drew Theological School and was ordained by the United Church of Christ in 2002. She also works at Flying Horse Farms, a camp for children with serious illness, in Mount Gilead. Karen lived in Ohio for her high school and college years and then after many years in Colorado returned in 2011 following her early retirement from Denver Human Services. In addition, Karen has worked as church pastor, hospice chaplain and religious educator. She and her partner live in Bellville.

Visioning Our Future

We had a successful day "Visioning" and generated pages of ideas for the future at All Souls. We also selected the 9 things we thought we can or NEED to accomplish in the next year. Here they are:

1. Pastoral Care Team – Create of team of Church Members who can do some of the care of other members, in coordination with Rev. Karen.
2. Speakers for R.E. – Invite some of our speakers to lead the Adult Education class the same day they are speaking and advertise it to the public to generate interest in our church. (plus enjoy the speakers for an extra hour)
3. Members for R.E. – Ask some of our members to lead Adult Education about things they are passionate about, i.e. Meditation or New Age, etc.
4. Something at Bellville Fair – Possibly expand the use our current table at the Bellville Fair to include information about our church.
5. Urgent Repairs (Board) – Find a way to raise money needed for window repairs (upstairs and downstairs)
6. Revisit Music – Discuss the cost of the music in church, to see if it continues to be the number one priority for spending.
7. Encourage Members to be Speakers – If more of our members speak on Sunday morning we get to know them better and it saves the church money!
8. Evaluate Effectiveness of Fundraisers – Discuss if the two annual fundraisers need to be changed in some way to refresh them and possibly generate more visitors and income.
9. Celebrate Accomplishments – We have achieved so much in the past several years and we don't talk about this often enough and celebrate how much we HAVE done!

Please feel free to volunteer to help with ANY of these!!

NEW MEMBER CLASS SOMETIME IN MAY: If you are interested in attending a new member class please RSVP to Karen. If there is interest Karen will hold a class after church either May 4th or 18th PLEASE RSVP which date works best for you!

NEW OFFICERS NEEDED! Whether you are brand new or 'part of the furniture', you are needed to serve on the Board! Most folks on the Board now are 'retiring' for a little while so some new folks can have a turn! Stepping down will be Reed- President, Chuck – Treasurer, Jenny-Secretary, Cheryl –Trustee and Joan- Pulpit supply. THESE ARE ALL VERY IMPORTANT AND WE NEED YOU! Please contact Reed or one of the folks on the nominating committee if you might be willing to serve. Board elections are June 1.

CAMP HAS ARRIVED!

My time at camp will soon be increasing. Therefore my attendance at church on Sunday's will be decreasing. In Spring there are 4 weekend camps, then 2 months of living at camp in the summer, followed by 4 weekend camps in the Autumn. PLEASE KNOW YOU CAN CALL ME if you need to talk or to schedule a time to meet.

NOTES FROM THE PREZ

Board meetings will be moved to the third Sunday in May to accommodate Rev. Karen Bruno's other work schedule.

The Board approved April 26 for Spring Clean-up (May 3 rain date). Please see the sign-up sheet that will be going around. Projects include scraping and painting downstairs windows and painting the vestibule as well as just general cleaning and sprucing up.

Liz Hansen, Shelley Mauk and Bruce Kilgore are working on a Wedding Information brochure to make sure people know our church is available for rent for weddings (especially non-traditional ones).

Judy Shaffer welcomes input on the Sign Committee that needs a drawing to submit to the City for approval. We are looking for some way to frame our 7 Principles (3x4' sign). We are also looking to install recycle bins for church attendees for drop-off between scheduled quarterly recycle days (next date is June 22).

Brain Moore has done a nice job reorganizing the Highway Clean-up (starting its 20th year at All Souls). Look for that in late May or early June.

Election of new officers is June 1. Rummage and Luncheon is July 12.

If you have not talked with Shelley (pastoral care secretary) please see her for updates and other information. Let me know if there's any way I or a Board Member can assist you. -- Reed Richmond, Board President, 419-631-7912 (cell).

Religious Education Opportunities

This Summer, we'll have a multigenerational Religious Education program which will use the book “ Muhammad: The Story of a Prophet and Reformer” by Sarah Conover. Although the book was written for ages 12 and up, it is suitable as a read aloud for ages 10 and up. For this three session program, we will use the Discussion Guide created by the UUA. If you are willing to facilitate this session (the format looks pretty simple), please let Liz Hansen know. The starting date has not yet been determined, but will probably be in June. We'll have books available for purchase in the next month, if you need to borrow a book due to financial hardship, please talk with Liz. From the UUA website:

“Readers of the book, Muhammad, encounter a man very different from the figure often presented in Western popular culture. Conover, co-author of Ayat Jamilah: Beautiful Signs: A Treasury of Islamic Wisdom for Children and Parents, draws from biographies, the Quran, and hadith (Muslim tradition). She relates the story of a radical prophet who challenged the rich and powerful, guided his community of followers through a dangerous time of persecution and exile, formed alliances with people of different beliefs, and preached that one should ‘love for humanity what you love for yourself’.”

C.O.M.E. (Committee On Ministry Explained)

We listen. That's the main task of our COM. It was created during a time of difficulty that has receded. That is its origin. Our COM is a group of four members that can be contacted with any concern from a member of our church family. It is not just a committee on /for the minister, but a committee that is approachable and listens to concerns and ideas that effect the church family as a whole. Got an idea for a new program? Bring it. Got a concern about services? Bring it. Got a concern about a new idea or issue you would like the church to address? Bring it. We are here to listen. We care about the welfare of the church family and we can be a first step for you to voice your care and concerns as well. Please feel free to contact us before/ after services or by phone (reasonable hours please). We are your COM. We listen. We care. Grow in Peace.

Pulpit Schedule for 2014

Our speakers for the rest of 2014 are filled in save for a few open spots late in the year. Having most of the dates filled will be helpful for the person who takes over Pulpit Chair in July. I will share all my sources and files and tips with this wonderful person. Might it be you? -- Joan Richmond

Just a note: Our guest speaker for April 13 was on own Karen Gotter who did a wonderful job. Attendance was great at 60 and we had many children and guests. A special guest at Children’s Moment was a live lamb (thanks to Deb and Clarence) and Cheryl read the real story of “Mary Had A Little Lamb.” A great service by everyone involved!
